Mr. Tighe had all the qualities that made learning easy as well as pleasant. He injected humor into his subject and saw learning as an adventure. Not only did he take a special interest, but he continually made students feel comfortable as he encouraged them to give their best effort. He never intimidated but always had time for everyone. He's well remembered around the school as someone whom all students could relate to and consider their friend. At the same time, he genuinely loved teaching.

All of us remember Mr. Tighe, miss his kind and warm smile brightening our days at Rippowam.

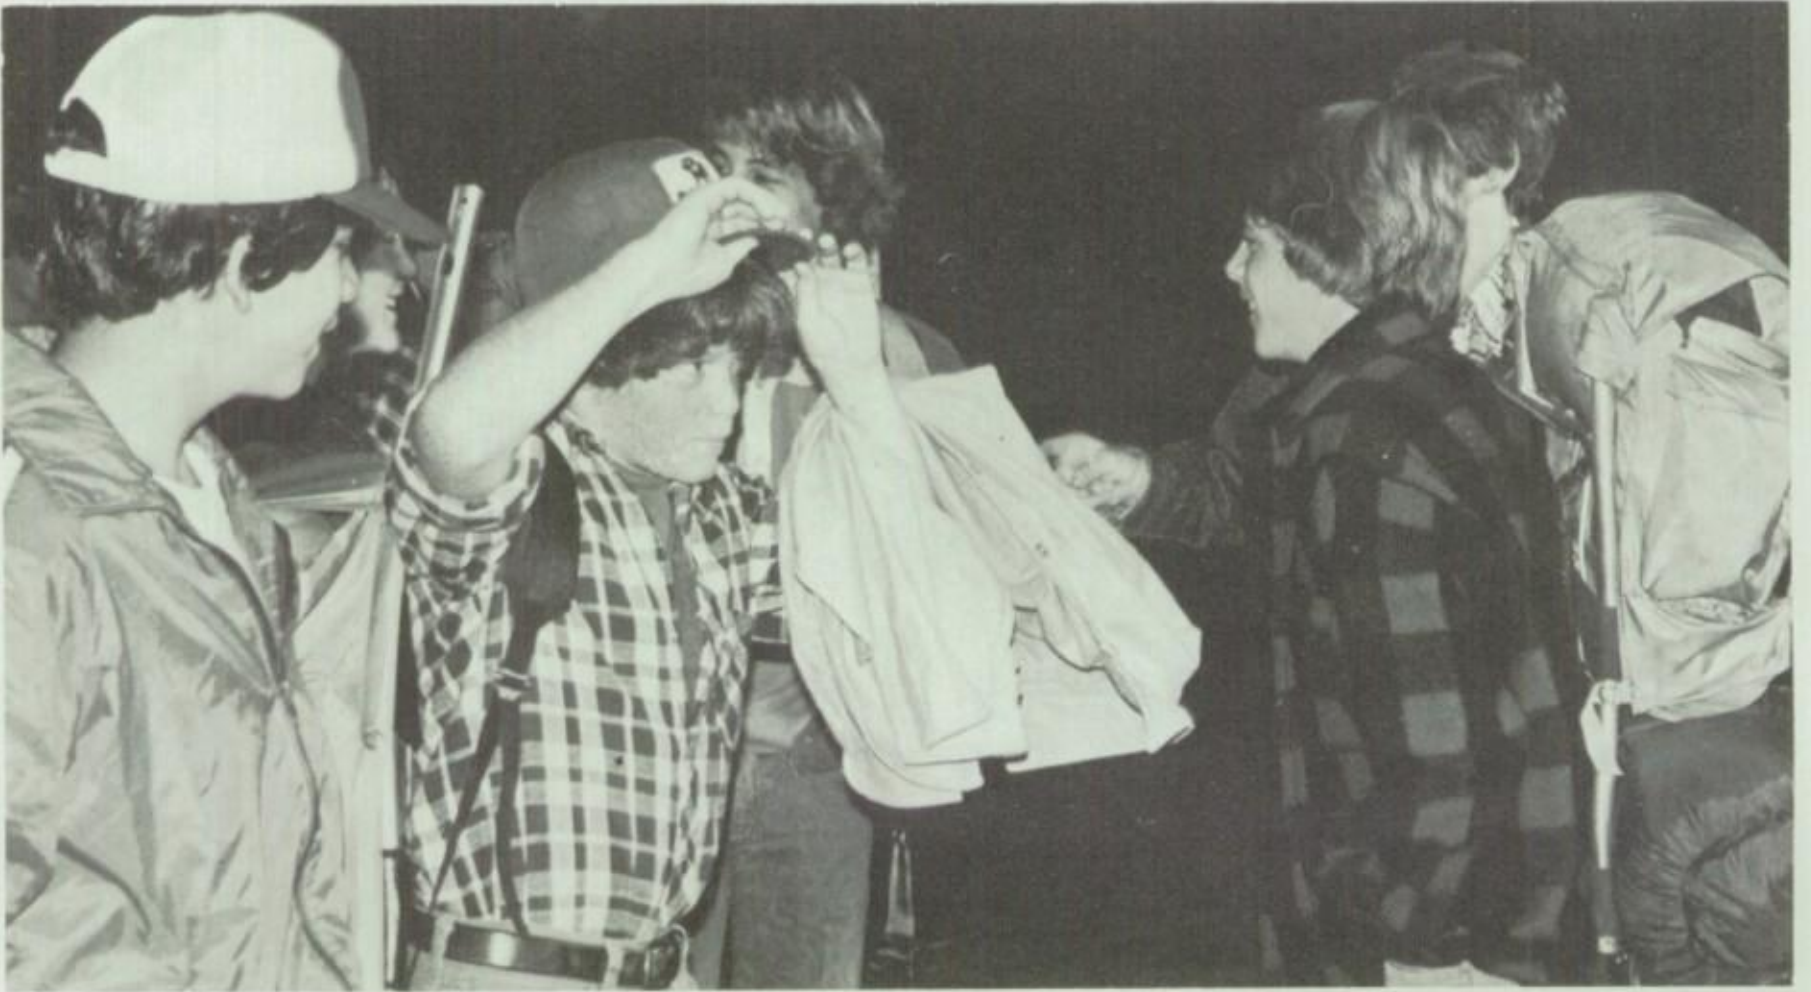

— Tina Spain
